State of Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources Bureau of Community Financial Assistance PO Box 7921 Madison, WI 53707-7921 Phone No. (608) 266-7555 FAX (608) 267-0496

City

Priority Evaluation and Ranking Form (PERF) Land Recycling Loan Program (LRLP)

Form 8700-272 (12/02)

LEAVE BLANK-DNR USE ONLY
Loan Number:
Postmark Date:

Notice: Land Recycling Loan Program applicants requesting a project priority score for the purpose of being included in a project priority funding list are Eligible Applicant  Project Site Name  Evaluation Criteria  Do Not DNR Us	required to complete and submit this form as authorized by s. 281 form may result in the denial of funds for the project. Personal info made available to requesters as required by Wisconsin Open Rec See Instructional Sheet. Fill in all non-shaded spaces.	rmation collected on this form will be	e used for prog	gram adı	ministratio	on and n	nust be

1. Has the site affected one or more public water supply wells or private drinking water supply wells above maximum contaminant levels?  2. Has the site affected groundwater above preventive action limits?  • Has the site affected groundwater above enforcement standards of public health groundwater quality standards?  • Has the been any investigation done that shows soil or sediment contamination at the site?  4. Is there a magreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  • 1 acre or less  • Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres  • Greater than 2 acres, but not greater than 4 acres  • Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 5 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 6 acres, but not greater than 6 acres, but	·
1. Has the site affected one or more public water supply wells or private drinking water supply wells above maximum contaminant levels?  2. Has the site affected groundwater above preventive action limits?  3.1 Has the site affected groundwater above preventive action limits?  5. Has the site affected groundwater above enforcement standards of public health groundwater quality standards?  5. Has the site affected groundwater above enforcement standards of public health groundwater quality standards?  5. Has there been any investigation done that shows soil or sediment contamination at the site?  4. Is there an agreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  6. The size of the size?  1. Tacre or less  6. Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres  6. Greater than 2 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  6. Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  7. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive areas	Evaluation Criteria above maximum contaminant levels?  2. Has the site affected groundwater above preventive action limits?  3. Has the site affected groundwater above enforcement standards of public health groundwater quality standards?  3. Has there been any investigation done that shows soil or sediment contamination at the site?  4. Is there an agreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  6. Is the site in agreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  6. Is the site in agreement acres, but not greater than 3 acres  6. Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 5 acres  6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification suclies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway p			No	Yes			DNR Use Only
Has the site affected groundwater above enforcement standards of public health groundwater quality standards?  3. Has there been any investigation done that shows soil or sediment contamination at the site?  4. Is there an agreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  1. 1 acre or less  Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres  Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 4 acres  Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  Greater than 5.0 acres  6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site offected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and dientification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this fo	1. Has the site affected one or more public water supply wells above maximum contaminant levels?	or private drinking water supply we	lls			31
groundwater quality slandards?  3. Has there been any investigation done that shows soil or sediment contamination at the site?  4. Is there an agreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  6. What is the size of the site?  7. Is the size of the site?  6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site dassignated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site of a site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SDIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  8. Is the site of Authorized Representative of Authorized Representative planes are provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.	2. Has the site affected groundwater above preventive action I	imits?				5
4. Is there an agreement that has been executed between the municipality and a private developer for redevelopment of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  6. Is the size of less  6. Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres  6. Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 4 acres  6. Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  7. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site adesignated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  10.  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  Printed Name  Date Signed  Date Signed		ndards of public health				5
for redevelopment of the site?  5. What is the size of the site?  • 1 acre or less  • Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres  • Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 4 acres  • Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  • Greater than 5.0 acres  6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  10  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized	3. Has there been any investigation done that shows soil or sediment contamination at the site?					5
Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres     Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 4 acres     Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 5 acres     Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres     Greater than 5.0 acres     Greater than 5.0 acres     Greater than 5.0 acres     G. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  10  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signa			er			5
Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 4 acres Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres Greater than 5.0 acres Greater than 6.0 acres Greater than 5.0 acres Greater tha						1
Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres  Greater than 5.0 acres  G	Greater than 1 acre, but not greater than 3 acres					2
Greater than 5.0 acres  6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct. Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	Greater than 3 acres, but not greater than 4 acres					3
6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?  7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct. Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	Greater than 4 acres, but not greater than 5 acres					4
7. Is the site within an area specially designated for tax incentives or targeted public funding, including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	Greater than 5.0 acres					5
including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business improvement district or community development block grant target area?  8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?  9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative Printed Name Date Signed	6. Is the site in agreement with a municipally adopted plan for renewal or redevelopment?					5
9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?  10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative Printed Name Date Signed	including but not limited to, BEAP site, tax incremental financing district, enterprise zone, business		ess			5
10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	8. Is there a portion of the site remediation that is being funded by the Wisconsin Environmental Fund?		und?
or minority?  11. Has the site affected a surface water or wetland that is designated an outstanding resource water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	9. Is the site a designated U.S. Environmental Protection Agency removal site?					1
water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a special designated environmentally sensitive area?  12. DNR shall assign the site a population score based on the total population of the municipality  Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	10. Is the site located in an area that has a significant proportion of the population that is low income or minority?		ne			1
Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	water, an exceptional resource water, a state or federal wildlife refuge, a state natural area or a		a			2
Population Score(PS) = 1 - (log 10 municipal population)  *Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed
*Note: Examples of environmentally sensitive areas include: environmentally sensitive areas and environmental corridors identified in area-wide water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed	, ,	• •
water quality management plans, special area management plans (SAMP), special wetland inventory studies (SWIS), advanced delineation and identification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive outdoor recreation plan (CORP), riverway plan, and areas designated by the U. Environmental Protection Agency.  Signature  I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative  Printed Name  Date Signed		ation)
I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief, data provided on this form is true and correct.  Signature of Authorized Representative Printed Name Date Signed	water quality management plans, special area management planidentification studies (ADID), areas identified in a comprehensive	ns (SAMP), special wetland invento	ory studies (S	WIS), ac	dvanced	delineat	ion and
Signature of Authorized Representative Printed Name Date Signed	Signature
	I have reviewed the information provided on this form and to the	best of my knowledge and belief, of	data provided	on this	form is tr	ue and	correct.
Street Address Email Address	Signature of Authorized Representative	Printed Name Date Signe			ned
	Street Address	Email Add	Iress

State

Zip Code

Telephone No.